

Immaculate Conception School

Basketball Program

Codes of Conduct

Student Athlete

Athletes should understand that they are representatives of Immaculate Conception School at all times, on and off school property. Their behavior is a reflection of our school and parish community. These codes of conducts are intended to provide guidelines regarding the responsibilities of all athletes.

1. Follow coaches' instructions in practice and during games with respect. Give the coach your full attention at all times. Thank your coach after practices and games.
2. Attend, on time, all practices and games. If you are going to be late or absent, let your coach know as soon as possible.
3. Be a good teammate, and do not taunt or bully other team members. Provide positive and encouraging comments at all times to teammates.
4. Respect officials of the game at all times. Do not show any disrespect due to a call. Thank officials at the end of the game.
5. Respect opponents as fellow students: they are trying to do their best, just as you are.
6. DO NOT RESPOND TO ANY DISRESPECTFUL ACTIVITIES, ACTIONS, OR WORDS OF OPPOSING PLAYERS, COACHES, OR SPECTATORS.
7. Do not taunt, intimidate, tease, make fun of, laugh at, get angry at, opposing team members.
8. Exhibit good sportsmanship, win or lose. Shake hands at the end of the game, say good game, compliment your opponents no matter who wins.
9. Do not engage in overly aggressive behavior ie. elbowing, pushing, tripping, etc.
10. Language on and off court must be respectful and encouraging at all times.
11. Respect the property of our school and other schools. Any violation of destruction of property will result in suspension from the program.
12. Athletes will maintain academics throughout the season. The principal will inform the player if eligibility is in question due to grades.
13. Above all you are Christian, and a representative of IC School.

Coaches

1. Provide a safe environment for the players.
2. Organize practices that are fun and challenging for the players.
3. Be knowledgeable about the rules of the game and CYO league.
4. Be a model of fair play and sportsmanship for the players and their parents.
5. Treat all players and their parents with respect.
6. Treat players fairly and not give special attention or treatment for their own child.
7. Respect the emotional and physical well-being of the players.

Parents

1. Be responsible for getting their child on time to practice and games, and notify the coaches head of time when their child will be unable to play in a game
2. Support the program by working their fair share of time in the Snack Shack at home games and during the annual tournament.
3. Moms at all girls' practices if you are assigned and are unable to attend practice you are responsible to find a replacement and let the team coordinator know.
4. Support their child's coaches in order to provide a positive experience for all
5. Be a model for good sportsmanship by treating all players, coaches, referee and fans with respect
6. Let the coaches do the coaching, refraining from giving the players advice or instructions during the game
7. Let the referees call the game, refraining from questioning or complaining about the referees' calls, remembering that the referees are volunteers
8. Never forget that the game is for the players - not the parents